With the increasing demand for Tele-mental health services, this workshop provides practical techniques, tools, and games to create a therapeutic and engaging online environment for young clients. In this interactive workshop, we will explore the world of virtual play therapy and discover a variety of interventions designed to engage children effectively in telehealth settings.

Therapists will additionally learn to adapt some of the traditional play therapy techniques to the virtual setting. This course will provide you with the knowledge and tools needed to navigate the unique dynamics of telehealth play therapy, all while ensuring your sessions are fun and engaging for young clients. We will offer insight into the typical obstacles faced in virtual play therapy and learn practical solutions to ensure your virtual sessions are successful. Enhance your therapeutic practice and make your telehealth play therapy sessions fun and engaging with our upcoming course!
